

Annual Report of Placement Cell

2016-17

The placement cell in the college act as link between the job seeking students and employers. It places 'wanted' advertisements on notice board regularly and students interested are appealed to apply for the suitable posts. The students desirous of taking competitive exams are guided through the competitive exam guidance center. As result of these efforts the cell the following students have been placed in various organizations . The cell conducted a one day workshop on Careers and opportunities in Arts, Commerce and Science faculty on 9/2/2016 under the forum of lead college. Shri. P.M. Harshe, Computer professional, Mr.Vijay Bhosale, Director, Maharashtra Business Training Board,Kolhapur and CA Nitin Hargude delivered lectures as resource persons.

2015-16

The placement cell in the college act as link between the job seeking students and employers. It places 'wanted' advertisements on notice board regularly and students interested are appealed to apply for the suitable posts. The students desirous of taking competitive exams are guided through the competitive exam guidance center. As result of these efforts the cell the following students have been placed in various organizations

2014-15

The placement cell in the college act as link between the job seeking students and employers. It places 'wanted' advertisements on notice board regularly and students interested are appealed to apply for the suitable posts. The students desirous of taking competitive exams are guided through the competitive exam guidance center. As result of these efforts the cell the following students have been placed in various organizations

2013-14

The placement cell in the college act as link between the job seeking students and employers. It places 'wanted' advertisements on notice board regularly and students interested are appealed to apply for the suitable posts. The students desirous of taking competitive exams are guided through the competitive exam guidance center. As result of these efforts the cell the following students have been placed in various organizations

2012-13

The placement cell in the college act as link between the job seeking students and employers. It places 'wanted' advertisements on notice board regularly and students interested are appealed to apply for the suitable posts. The students desirous of taking competitive exams are guided through the competitive exam guidance center. As result of these efforts the cell the following students have been placed in various organizations

PRINCIPAL
Anandi Arts & Commerce Science
Mahavidyalaya Gaganbaada
Tal. Gaganbavada Dist. Kolhapur